

	Monday, 20 June Integration/Disintegration: A Minority Rights Perspective	Tuesday, 21 June	Wednesday, 22 June Disintegrating worlds (1)? People on the move	Thursday, 23 June Integrating diversity (1): Migration	Friday, 24 June Integrating diversity (2): Linguistic diversity	Saturday, 25 June Avoiding disintegration (1): From mediation and participation to self-determination	Sunday, 26 June
09.00-10:30	Begin 09:30: Registration and introduction & Brief introduction to the study trip to Switzerland Thomas Burri University of St. Gallen, HSG	Integration of migrants: On weakening human rights Alexandra Xanthaki Brunel University London	Migration and refugees: The IOM perspective Mersem Eltoy International Organization for Migration (IOM)	Re-thinking immigrant integration policies in a multilevel governance perspective. The case of Italy Tiziana Caponio University Turin	Departure to Switzerland (from EURAC, exact departure time will be communicated)	Workshop: Ethno-political conflicts - challenges for conflict resolution and peace mediation Murezi Michael, former Head of Mediation, Swiss Department of Foreign Affairs and Anna Hess Sargsyan, Senior Program Officer, Mediation Support Project, (CSS/ETH)	Managing Diversity - in Switzerland and in Europe: Old traditions and new ideas Daniel Thüerer University of Zürich, Convivenza
10:45-12:15	Diversity governance against the state: The Kurdish case in Turkey Kerem Öktem University of Graz	Victors and Victims: The Historical Roots of South Tyrolean "Question" Andrea Carlà EURAC Visit of the Victory Monument Museum	The people of Lampedusa and the refugees: encounters at the edge of Europe Gilles Reckinger Universität Innsbruck	Is it really about values? Civic nationalism and immigrant integration Stephen Larin EURAC
LUNCHBREAK
14:00-15:30	Integration/ Disintegration – Perspectives from International Law Joshua Castellino Middlesex University	Segregation and Integration in South Tyrol's Consociational Democracy Sergiu Constantin EURAC	Asylum Seekers in South Tyrol: A Meeting with local NGOs and activists	Free afternoon	15.30: Fieldtrip to a local school 18:00-19:00: Welcome and introduction Romedi Arquint Convivenza	16:30: Modern Self-Determination Thomas Burri University of St. Gallen, HSG	13.00: Visit of Müstair Convent Approx. 15.00: departure to Bozen / Bolzano

	Monday, 27 June Integrating diversity (3): religious diversity	Tuesday, 28 June Disintegrating worlds (2)?	Wednesday, 29 June Nationalisms, EU-scepticism (TBC)	Thursday, 30 June Integrating diversity (4): Aboriginal and indigenous politics and rights	Friday, 1 July Avoiding disintegration (2): From diplomacy to intervention
09.00-10:30	The role of reasonable accommodation in integrating religious minorities in the European labour market. From case law developments and sociological insights to the contribution of national expert commissions Katayoun Alidadi Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology		The Disintegration of Europe? Annegret Eppler, University of Innsbruck	Making Canada Legitimate? The Negotiation of Modern Treaties with Indigenous Peoples Martin Papillon Université de Montréal	Facing disintegration in the MENA region. What role for diplomacy? Luigi Narbone (European University Institute, Florence)
10:45-12:15		10:15: Visit to the South Tyrolean Parliament and meeting with local politicians (meet at Landtag)	Euroscepticism and Britain's EU referendum Matthew Goodwin University of Kent	Indigenous rights in the face of climate change Alexandra Tomaselli EURAC / University of Graz	The Development and Evolution of the Responsibility to Protect Jennifer Welsh (European University Institute, Florence)
LUNCHBREAK
14:00-15:30	The Contribution of the European Court of Human Rights to the Accommodation of Contemporary Religious Diversity Roberta Medda-Windischer EURAC	Exclusion amid inclusion: representation of non-dominant groups in power sharing institutions Timofey Agarin Queen's University Belfast	From Minority Protection to Diversity Governance: an Interdisciplinary Perspective Joseph Marko University of Graz	Placing Environmental Changes, Human Mobility and Human Development on the Map Elisa Fornalé Radboud University	Certificates and Farewell
15:45-17.15	Role play: Religious Diversity in Contemporary Societies: Challenges and Perspectives Roberta Medda-Windischer EURAC	Contemporary Democratic Theory and Religion Camil Ungureanu, Pompeu Fabra University	Films and discussion on indigenous people's rights Alexandra Tomaselli, EURAC / University of Graz		